givejedahand #oneBRAVEnight #nighttoremember One brave night after years of not cutting it, Hacky Dan became a #CAMHFoundation man. Finally, with his otherwise totally worthless #Philosophy degree from #YorkUniversity in Clownsview, he felt worthwhile. He didn't have to be a #PLAGIARIST no more! Hacky Dan became Hacky Dan Foundation Man!
He wrote copy for #fundraisers that said truly amazing things. They were on the cusp of the #biggest #breakthrough EVER (it was a precipice). They were removing #stigma (they were screwing with the biggest professional #stigmatizers in the country (#Aimia, #Dentsubos, #FleishmanHillard #TapscottGroup #Voicesfromthestreet (?!), themselves etc) and even SOLD WORTHLESS #STIGMATA (#CAMH / #$CAMH "safes") to corrupt and/or lousy outfits (#Bell #McCain #BostonPizza #CIBC, #RBC, #TDBank, #Voicesfromthestreet, etc. etc.) in order to legitimize them (for a "small" consideration of course!). Dan wrote that they were all going to stay up all night to defeat #mentalillness (the most outrageous assertion of all, which he partly stole from the long-lost WAR ON DRUGS which nobody questioned because now he was Hacky Dan Foundation Man and he could write any damned DRIVEL he wanted and he'd still get paid, certainly more than he ever got ghost-writing Muffy's student paper on the onanistic properties of macrame. (He wouldn't have to go back to teaching! He'd never find himself in the odious position of having to flunk little Muffy for that essay that he wrote himself, then face same indigant little BITCH, grieving her F and demanding a refund too.) "HEY!" Dan said, removing his NATIVES FAG. "It's easy to be a CRITIC." Johnny wondered what in the world Hacky Dan thought HE (Hacky Dan) was. Looked like a BAD CASE of EITHER/OR THINKING to JOHNNY. #CAMHUnderstanding? Must have been an #infarction, it made people SHIT out of their MIND. "So what?!" said Hacky Dan. It was his turn on the #SunshineList. You couldn't say #CAMH never did anyone any good. Why, back in the day it found Hacky Dan a SHOULDER TO CRY ON. Now #CAMHFoundation got him a JOB! How's THAT - for #RESILIENCE! #sunriseselfie givejedahand Dan was smoking (yet another) joint in the alley between the soup kitchen and his overpriced #HIPSTER hotel room with the bathroom across the hall. #Transforminglives? Model suite? #Gangway! "The PENDULUM OF HISTORY SWINGS BOTH WAYS!" That was Hegel when he stopped the clock - a hundred years before Thomas Szasz.

Hacky Dan, I hope you find a BERTH that's #SAFE - according to Catherine Zahn - for your #mentalhealth, which is like forging a Captain's license then setting sail with him in hurricane season. Considering you forged it, I can only wish you BON VOYAGE!
